

First United Methodist Church
21 Buell Street
Burlington, Vermont 05401
(802) 862-1151 Fax: (802) 862-6583
www.fumcburlington.org
email: officemanager@fumcburlington.org

Richard H. Hibbert, Pastor
Marian Steimke, Office Manager

George Matthew, Director of Music
David Billings, Church Sexton

First United Methodist Church of Burlington announces the third annual series of free Thursday noon concerts:

- Feb. 4 Opening the series will be a concert by Elisabeth von Trapp in a varied program featuring her own compositions.
- Feb. 11 Organ recital by George Matthew Jr., director of music of FUMC, playing works of Seth Bingham, Harold Darke, and Constantin Homilius.
- Feb. 18 Organ recital by Mr. Matthew, playing works of J. S. Bach and Russian composer Georgi Muschel.
- Feb. 25 Organ recital by Mr. Matthew, playing works of the Bavarian composers Georg Muffat and Gottlieb Muffat and American composer Frank Stewart Adams.
- March 4 Piano recital by DaWeon Ryu, student of Diana Fanning at Middlebury, performing works by Beethoven and Debussy.
- March 11 Organ recital by Lynnette Combs, organist of First Baptist Church of Burlington and a founding member of Arc Angelo, a chamber group specializing in music of the Baroque period. She will play works by J. S. Bach, Johannes Brahms and Richard Dubra.
- March 18 Organ recital by Mr. Matthew playing works by Scottish composer Rory Boyle and Russian composer Sergei Liapunov.
- March 25 "Old Fashioned Hymn Sing" directed by Dr. Charles Pippenger accompanied by Mr. Matthew. Requests welcome.
- April 1 Maundy Thursday: an organ recital entitled Orgelgebet (Organ Prayers). Mr. Matthew will play works of Harald Genzmer, Jeanne Demessieux, Ronald Arnatt, Gardner Read, and Egil Hovland, which commemorate the solemnity of the day.
- April 8 Elisabeth von Trapp will close the series with a joyous program featuring her own works.